

Raffle Items

LUNAFEST 2022

Items can be shipped to winners, unless otherwise noted.

Item 1

Wine Basket

Donated by Irene Sullivan

Cannot be shipped

A metal basket with Bailey's Irish Cream, wine, crackers and jam.

"Wine is to women as duct tape is to men. It fixes everything!" – anonymous (She takes umbrage at that sexist statement. She used duct tape quite adroitly to fix her wine glass!)

Item 2

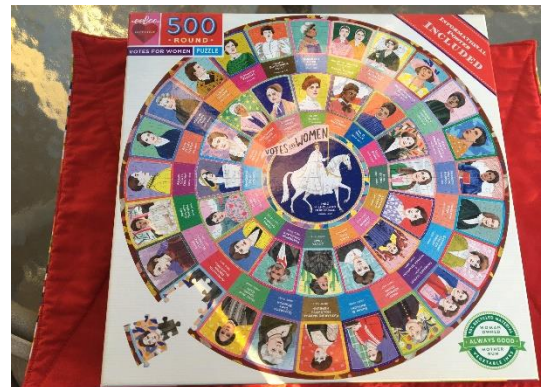

Feminist Foremothers

Donated by Polly Daly

Four wine glasses with feminist quotes and a jigsaw puzzle honoring women who fought for the vote.

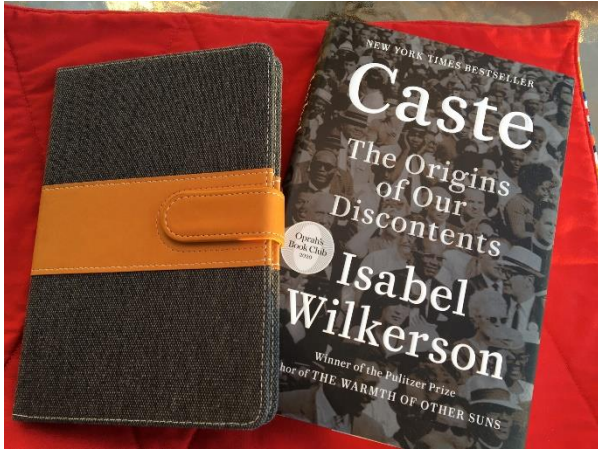

One hopes that Rush Limbaugh, purported author of the slur "feminazi," is sitting at the feet of the women who fought so bravely for women's rights. You can think about that every time you sip from these glasses and work the jigsaw puzzle.

Item 3

A Book and a Journal
Donated by Phyllis Debertin

Caste and a blank journal with a leather closure.

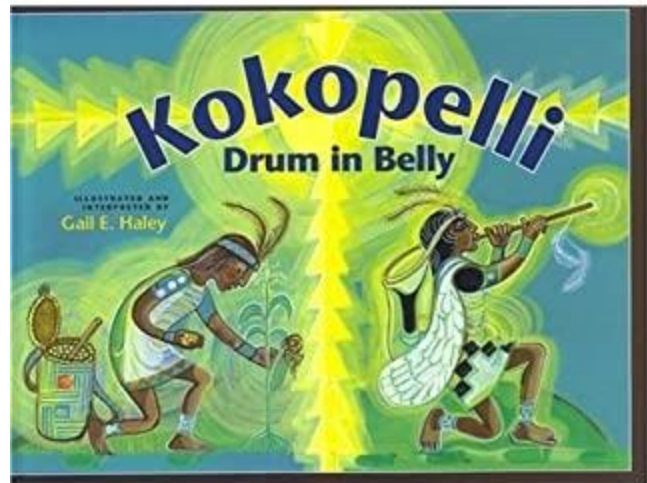

“Author Isabel Wilkerson argues that life in the United States is defined by a dual-poled caste system in which white people comprise the dominant caste while Black people comprise the subordinate caste.” – LitCharts. Do you agree? Write your thoughts in the journal.

Item 4

Kokopelli and a Book
Donated by Susan Kirk

What child wouldn't want a 24" plushy Kokopelli to cuddle after reading Kokopelli Drum in Belly? (for 2nd to 3rd graders)

Item 5

Small Blue & White Glass Vase (5" tall and about 5 1/2" wide), made by Jim Thomas
Donated by Jean Saballus
Cannot be shipped

"A blue vase sits on a table. I study it's [sic] color whenever I'm able. It was made with hands, Seen with eyes, And it's full of stories." Excerpt from The vase that truly lived by Jason Matthew Reid

Item 6

Echo Dot 4th Generation
Donated by AAUW Public Policy

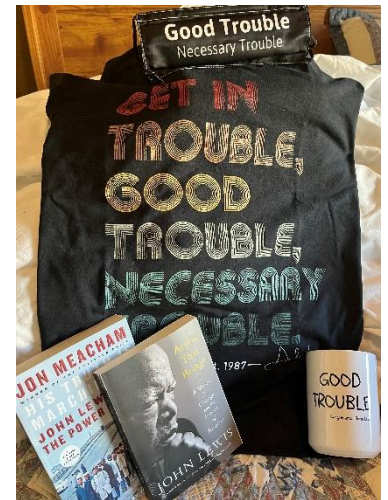

Once upon a time, there was Alexa. Now it can be a Ziggy. Female voice? Male voice? Your choice.

Item 7

Help Redeem the Soul of America
Donated by AAUW Public Policy

This box contains a mask, shirt, books and a mug.
Learn more about John Lewis, the civil rights activist, and proudly wear the "Get in Good Trouble" tee shirt (size XL).

Item 8

Wooden Box (8"x5"x4.5") made by Doug Adams
Donated by Morning Book Club

Beautiful rosewood top and maple sides. Surprise!! There's money inside!

Item 9

Burgundy Silk Table Runner (76" long) and 2 Pillow Covers (16 1/2" X 17")
Donated by Paula Kulina

Pandemic got you down? Tired of looking at the same ol' stuff in your house? Change it up with these beautiful silk treasures from Singapore!

Item 10

Laurel Burch Purse (7"x13"), Decorated with Butterflies
Donated by Joan DuDeVoire

The butterflies are made with metallic thread creating a striking pattern. There are two inside pockets and one has a zipper. The purse has a zipper closure. This colorful purse will be a charm on your arm.

"I've got a thing for handbags, all shapes and sizes. It's a bother changing, but the occasion always arises." -Excerpt from SHOES, BAGS AND TAGS by Jennifer Proxenos.

Item 11

Vintage Necklace with Turquoise Tones (adjustable 12" to 18")
Donated by Carolyn Morley

The crystals radiate blue and pink colors. This is a very pretty and well-made piece of costume jewelry that is possibly from the 1940s.

"Beauty is who you are. Jewelry is simply the icing on the cake." - Misty Burgess

Item 12

Chico's Silver Ox Bracelet Watch
Donated by Pam Duchaine

"Just how long will this lecture last," she wondered and sighed. She peeked at her watch and smiled... such a pretty watch.

Item 13

Vintage Necklace (18")
Donated by Carolyn Morley

She looked in the mirror and thought, "I'm starting to rust. I must push myself! A dab of lipstick. A little blush. And I have just the prettiest necklace to wear as I dust. Voila! I'm not going to seed! I'm Donna Reed!"

Another very pretty and well-made costume jewelry piece possibly from the 40s.

Item 14

Southwest-Style Necklace (18") and Pierced Earrings with Lapis Stones, by and from Karen Bond

"Lapis lazuli has been associated with strength and courage, royalty and wisdom, intellect and truth." – Google website. Sounds like Wonder Woman to me. Keep scrolling – maybe the Magic Lasso will appear --

Item 15

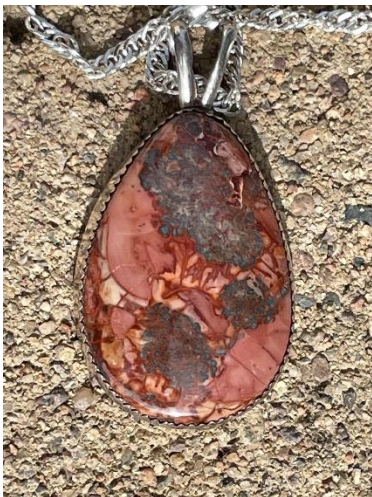

Sterling Silver Necklace (22") with Blood Jasper Stone Pendant, by silversmith Tom Woythal
Donated by Deb Woythal

The "spotted stone" can be striped, flamed, spotted and/or multicolored. These variants create beautiful pieces. It's known for its calming qualities – a fine feature for these trying times.

Item 16

Sterling Silver Necklace (22") with Rhodochrosite Cabochon Pendant, by silversmith Tom Woythal
Donated by Deb Woythal

This is a striking and beautiful Inca Rose pendant that will add style to any outfit.

Did you know that Rhodochrosite is Argentina's "national gemstone" and it's Colorado's state mineral? We are just full of fun facts.

Item 17

Autumn Breeze (8x10) Acrylic Landscape, by and from Carolyn Morley

We live in a desert. Some of us miss hiding in tall grasses where we dreamily gaze at the floaty clouds above with their strange animal shapes that trigger our imaginations which may turn into the weird creations such as item #18.

Item 18

Alebrijes: Animals from Dreams
donated by Claudette Haney

This striking creature from Oaxaca is 9"x10" and is waiting for a new home. It will definitely share its spirit with you – whether you are awake or not.

Item 19

African Mahogany Bowl with Ebony Stripes (10.5" diameter x 2.25" deep), by Doug Adams
Donated by Liz Adams

This beautiful bowl is treated with non-toxic walnut oil and comes to you with Lindor chocolates.
Doug Adams has donated many of his fine wood products to our raffles over the years.

“He who works with his hands is a laborer. He who works with his hands and his head is a craftsman. He who works with his hands and his head and his heart is an artist.” -St. Francis of Assisi

Item 20

Petites Fleurs (10x13), by and from Carolyn Morley

“Where flowers bloom, so does hope.” - Lady Bird Johnson

This cheerful watercolor will brighten any spot in your home and evoke a smile every time you see it.

Item 21

Wall Hanging Ceramic and Copper (30" long and 4" wide at shoulder)
Donated by Tecla Mikoseff

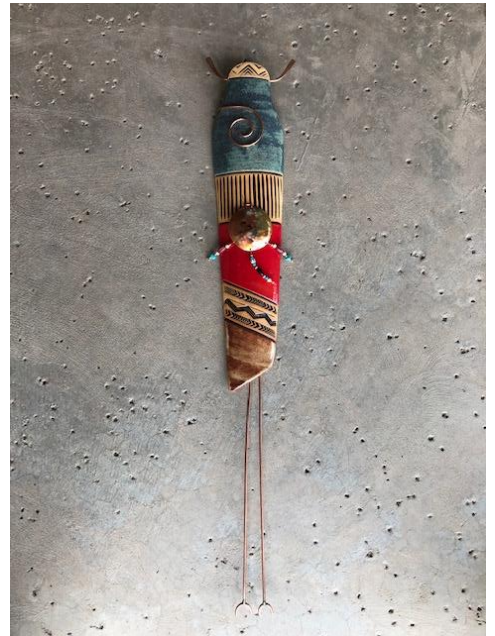

This piece of striking original art, in copper and bright red tones, has an attached loop for easy hanging inside or on your patio wall.

*"You can't use up creativity. The more you use, the more you have."
Maya Angelou*

Item 22

Wall Hanging Ceramic and Copper (30" long and 4" wide at shoulder)
Donated by Tecla Mikoseff

Striking original artwork in bright red and copper with turquoise accent. The attached loop allows you to hang this piece wherever you choose, inside or outside.

Item 23

Cat as Art (8" wide)
Donated by Alice Sowards

An impressive art tile created by the Norwegian ceramist, Konrad Galaaen, and dated 1971.

"There are no ordinary cats," said Colette. This splendid piece proves it.

Item 24

Alebrijes: Animals from Dreams
Donated by Claudette Haney

This winged figure from Oaxaca is 9”x7” and you may think it’s a braying donkey, but is it? Was it the product of a fanciful dream or a fearsome nightmare? Whichever – it needs your love and care.

Item 25

Talavera Dish (10”x15”)
Donated by Phyllis Debertin

“She wished for a dish like a fish with a whim that it would swim. It wouldn’t or couldn’t, so dang it she’d hang it.” - Notsayinwho

This very handsome dish really can be used in the kitchen or hung on a wall. Talavera pottery is made in Mexico at factories such as Uriarte in Pueblo. Put that trip on your post-pandemic list of places to visit.

Item 26

Alebrijes: Animals from Dreams
Donated by Claudette Haney

This twisting blue figure (9”x10”) is another stunning creature created by an artisan in Oaxaca.

“The Alebrijes are imaginary creatures that have elements from different animals such as dragon bodies, bat wings, wolf teeth and dog eyes. Colorfully painted, they were originally made with papier mache but nowadays they are also wood carved. The Alebrije was created by Pedro Linares Lopez in the 1930's.” --Mexican Folk Art Guide website

Item 27

La Cruz

Donated by Suzan Van Thul

Cannot be shipped

This 9" cement cross is decorated with Milagros which are small metal charms of devotional art. The word "Milagro" in Spanish means "miracle" or "surprise" and people in the past and present use them as symbols to wish others good luck, good health, and hope for the future. – various websites

Item 28

Dragon (6x11)

Donated by Claudette Haney

This dragon from Thailand is made from a single length of rope.

"Dragons in Thailand, similar to dragons in other Asian countries, represent some form of magic or supernatural power. Thai dragons bring water, protect Temples and are associated with wisdom and longevity." --Draconian.com

Item 29

The Mission Mosaic (15"x22"), by and from Stacie Meyer

Cannot be shipped

Created with glass tile, stone, and pebbles and encased in a steel frame, this charming mosaic is ready to hang.

"A mosaic is an artistic technique that uses tiny parts to create a whole image or object. Mosaics are usually assembled using small tiles that are made of glass, stone, or other materials. ... Using this technique, artists place the tiles directly on the final surface, whether that be on a wall, table, or other objects."

Item 30

Green Wool Scarf (28"x70" with 4" fringe)

Donated by Paula Kulina

This lovely scarf is 50% Merino wool and 50% Viscose. Wrap it around your neck. Wrap with tails on your chest. Wrap it like you saw in France.

Item 31

Cross Stitch Cactus (5"x7") and Knitted Prayer Shawl, by and from Joyce Davison

There are those who don't sew, so exactly what is cross stitch? It's a stitch in which pairs of diagonal stitches of the same length cross each other in the middle to form an X. Pictures are created using this form of sewing. Patience is required, hence the cross-stitch mantra, "Proof I have the patience to stab something 10,000 times." – anonymous

Some prayer shawls are used by Christians to give comfort and spiritual strength to the sick, dying, poor or those suffering from bad fortune. They are a symbol of loving care and devotion. When making the shawl, the crafter is very intentional about her work and infuses the piece with a prayer.
