

American Association of University Women Green Valley Branch
Scholarship Application
Instructions

Thank you for applying for the scholarship offered by the American Association of University Women Green Valley Branch. The scholarship is for a minimum of $1000 and must be used for tuition at Pima Community College. The monies will be directed to Pima Community College.

The application process closes April 30, 2024.

The application for the American Association of University Women Green Valley Branch Scholarship is three pages long, plus two pages for letters of recommendation. You should download the form and complete the first three pages. You may include additional sheets if the space allowed is not adequate. Be sure to include your name on any additional sheets. If you choose not to answer a question, please indicate that on the form.

Two letters of recommendation are required. The letters should be prepared by someone who is a community leader, employer, or academic representative. The letters should describe your achievements, both personally and academically. The letters should reference your name and include the author's relationship to you. Two pages are available for these letters, or they may be on separate letterhead. The letters may be sent separately to the address listed below. It is very important that you have two letters of recommendation.

All completed forms and letters of recommendation should be mailed to:
AAUW Green Valley Branch
P.O. Box 178
Green Valley, AZ 85622

Completed applications, including letters of recommendation, must be received by April 30, 2024.
